

CATHOLICS

CONFRONT

GLOBAL

POVERTY

This Sunday, October 29th, the Confronting Global Poverty subcommittee of St. John's Social Ministry Committee is sponsoring a presentation about immigration issues.

The speaker is George Clack, a well-known teacher at Johns Hopkins OSHER program and Howard Community College 60+ program. He will be discussing key issues in the immigration debate, such as DACA, sanctuary, refugees, and deportation. The presentation begins at 7:00 at Oakland Mills Interfaith Center; we will have refreshments at 6:30.