

SPECIAL

You are invited to the
Special Family eXperience (FX) Retreat

January 27, 2018 10 am—5pm
 Saint Louis, Clarksville MD

Special FX (effects) make things a lot more interesting. It is the sound of the explosion from the alien Invasion. It is the dried ice fog coming off the concert stage and how the lights bounce off of it. It is the sound of violins intensifying when the protagonist makes a heroic return.

We believe that time away and conversation are some of the special effects that make parent-teen relations. Please join us.

This retreat is designed for parents & senior high aged young people. Our Schedule:
